A red line art illustration on a textured gold background. On the left, a bookshelf holds several books of varying heights. A lamp with a circular base and a long, thin neck stands next to the books. The words "Sign of the time" are written in a stylized, outlined font across the middle of the image, with the lamp's neck passing through the letters. A horizontal line extends from the right side of the lamp's base across the page.

CLASS OF 78 WAY BACK WHEN

Can you imagine what the Senior Class of 1978 would have become if they had graduated in 1878? Let your mind drift back in time to a small country town by the name of Hayden's Crossing. Let us stroll down to the local newspaper office which is being run by our influential news editor GARY HINKLE and his pronounced photographer CAP SENA, and catch up on the news of the century. Gary and Cap are busy working on the Hayden Monthly Times. When asked to bring us up to date on the class of 1878, they happily agreed and produced a whole stack of papers for us to thumb through. On the top of the stack on the front page we find these headlines:

"CALAMITY KITCHENS, WILD ED HICKOCK, AND THEIR BAND OF DESPERADOES PULL OFF THE MOST DARING ROBBERY OF THE DECADE."

As reported by JANET HAYS, President of the renowned "County Cash Bank", the bankrobbers were later identified as LAURIE KITCHENS, ED BUGAY, Bad BRUCE BARNES, Lean LEWIS MOON, and none other than the January Kid, JIM RAY DOOLIN. These robbers casually entered the bank and demanded all the cash from our honest and true bank teller BARBARA BRUCHEZ. Jim Doolin, being the playboy he is, spotted little Miss ROBIN HAYES, our beautiful and talented school teacher, as she entered the bank. Immediately he decided that she was more valuable and carried the damsel away. As the fleeing bandits entered the street a booming baritone bellowed, "One move and you'll meet your maker." They turned to see our competent Marshall DAVID FUNK positioned with his posse on the hotel balcony. The bandits were stunned by this unexpected arrest and Robin was rescued by Marshall Funk while demure Miss Bruchez held the gun on the robbers.

What a story! As we turn to page two we find the local news: RICK HARPER and FLIP TIPTON have united to form the Hoof and Tail blacksmith shop. Just think how many customers it will bring with this gallant duo working. Further down the page we see that BETTY RICKERBY has opened a new boarding house, "Rickerbys Roost". Her first tenants were none other than DONALD DOWLING and DANNY ROLANDO who ad just returned from Middle Cog where they had been panning gold. Regardless of their apperance, it has ben rumored that they have been very successful. At the bottom of the page we see the grand opening of the "Goldmine Saloon" which is owned and operated by the delightful DENISE HELLYER and her bar-maid assistant BONNIE JACKSON. Together, they provide dynamite drinks and dancing. The Goldmine is also noted for its superb entertainment provided by the Dazzling Duet, ragtime pianist CYNT-HIA KINNEY and the dexterous dancer CONNIE WILLIAMS. It has also been rumored that Baroness KAREN COPELAND and her husband will be here from England to provide special entertainment Saturday night. They will arrive at Hayden's Crossing at 5 o'clock sharp, because we all know that our local stagecoach driver JERRY STEPHEN-SON, who is fast, furious, and efficient, will have them here on time. Jerry and our local inventor RODNEY LIGHTH-IZER are busily working on their ideas of a horse-less carriage. Rodney expects to have this contraption done by fall??

As we turn to page three we find the most informative ladies section of the Hayden Monthly Times, the Dear Anne Column. The intelligent problem solver is none other than ANNE WILLIAMS. Her most frequent writers are LINDA SIDWELL, JOY BOOCO and JODY CAMILLETTI. However, all three are married and simply use the column to increase their knowledge of family life.

In the middle of the page we find that the "Change of the Times" dress shop, which is owned and operated by the fashionable and dashing MAUREEN KELLY, is having a clothing sale. This well-designed apparel is sewn by the excellent and noted seamstress REANON PITNEY. These clothes will be worn and presented by the slender and stunning model DEBBIE BURBRIDGE at an open fashion shop on Monday at 6 o'clock.

The General Store owner ROGER HUFF is also having a sale on chewing tobacco and Rum for the men of the family, and yard goods and flour for the ladies of the house. All of this merchandise has been brought in by the extravagant traveling salesman JIM SENA, who is also know as "Dr. Goodie" for his instant cure medicine.

On page four of the Hayden Monthly Times, we find that the Lost Pedigree Horse Ranch, owned by the glamorous horseman KIM ZEHNER, is sponsoring a local rodeo.

This is a big event and many big cowboys have come to participate. One such cowboy is the famous competitor DUSTIN KINNY. Dustin is expected to win, according to Mr. Lucky, or as we know him JIM MONTIETH, a famous gambler, who knows his comptitors. At the bottom of the page we find sponsors MS. CAVANAGH, MR. FUNK, MRS. McCLURE and MR. HERTZKE. They were laid to rest by our dignified undertaker BOB BENNETT and eulogized in glowing terms by our saintly brother BYRON McDONALD and our faithful missionary, Sister GLENDA RHODES.

Those were the good ole days!

Last Will and Testament

I, Debbie Burbridge, will all my knowledge of these past 12 years to Mr. Unruh in hopes that he can use parts of my smarts.

I, Janet Hays, will my height to Beverly Doolin in hopes she will use it to become a basketball star.

I, Denise Hellyer, will my fullness to Melinda Bell in hopes that she will go from flat to fluffy.

I, Gary Hinkle, will my lack of temper to that fiery head football coach. Thanks Coach.

I, Roger Huff, of unsound mind and tall body, will all my basketball skill to Kareem-Abdul-Jabbar in hopes that he will make better use of it when I did, or at least he did with the little that he has.

I, Maureen Kelly, do will and bequeath my superior driving ability to the first junior that has a wreck.

I, Cynthia Kinney, will my nose to anyone that will take it in hopes they'll have less problems with it than I did.

I, Laurie Kitchens, will my height (7'4") to Kelly Bowland in hopes he can be an even better basketball player.

I, Rod Lighthizer, of sound mind and fantastic body will my ability to get along with John Hays to anybody who wants to get along with the judge.

I, Jim Montieth, will the growth on my chest to whoever has the hair to wear it.

I, Reanon Pitney, will all my jewelry to Carrie Sweetser in hopes that she has as much fun with it as I did.

I, Betty Rickerby, will my large chest to anyone who will have it.

I, Dan Rolando, will my mouth to Mr. Morgan so just in case his breaks down, he will have a replacement.

I, Cap Sena, will to my mother that I will be good.

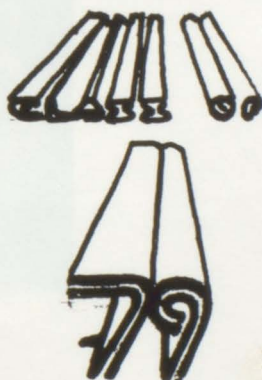

I, Jim Sena, of a magnificent mind and beautiful body, will my fantastic ability to ride motocross to 5 time World Champion Roger De Coster, my favorite ball of lint to the freshman class, and all my money to Nelson Rockefeller.

I, Jerry Stephenson, will a quart of whiskey to Jon Hertzke in hopes he can be an even better Athletic Director.

I, Connie Williams, will to anyone who can handle it, my ability to be cheerful in Mr. Unruh's boring first hour classes.

I, Kim Zehner, will my ability to cope with and/or understand Mr. Preator to anyone who wishes to communicate with him in the future.
